

Athletics

- Rick Peterson named Winona Daily News Girls Basketball Coach of the Year!
- Gina Guenther has committed to playing basketball at Rochester Community Technical College next year.
- Ashlyn Wnuk has committed to playing volleyball at Western Technical College next year.
- Isabella Holzer has committed to playing volleyball at Western Technical College next year.
- Girls Basketball player awards
  - Emma Mann for earning Winona Daily News All-Area First Team
  - Bella Holzer and Lexy Pronschinske for their well-deserved spots on the Winona Daily News All-Area Second Team!
  - Laura Adank received a WBCA team first award.
  - Bella Holzer received a WBCA all-state honorable mention award.
  - Emma Mann received a WBCA all-state 1st team award.
  - Ashlyn Wnuk, Grace Wenger, Mackenzie Wenger, Andrea Stolz, Emma Mann, Aubrey Smith, Bella Holzer, Lexi Pronschinske, Gina Guenther, Laura Adank, Kaelyn Comero, and Ana Knecht received WBCA individual academic all-state awards.

Mark your calendars for the upcoming events:

- Literacy Night, Thursday, April 25, 5:30 – 7:30 pm.
- 4K orientation event, April 26, 1-hour sessions from 8:00 am. – 2:00 pm.

FBLA

- Mya and Jaycee put their best foot forward, with Mya giving her all and Jaycee earning a fantastic 7th place at State, it doesn't move her to Nationals but did a great job!

The Buffalo County Partnership Council

- C-FC seniors and their peers from Mondovi, Alma, and Gilmanton took part in the annual Buffalo County Partnership Council Senior Day!
- From riveting talks by nationally renowned speaker Mike McGowan to an eye-opening presentation by Buffalo County Sheriff Mike Osmond, and a heartfelt story shared by Shane Urness, the day was packed with wisdom and life lessons.

\We're thrilled to unveil the fabulous new front entrance signage.

